

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR COURT MANAGEMENT

RESOLUTION 9

In Recognition of William F. Dressel

WHEREAS, William F. Dressel will be retiring as President of the National Judicial College at the end of 2013; and

WHEREAS, William F. Dressel has served as President of the National Judicial College since 2000 and prior to joining the College he was a general jurisdiction trial judge in Fort Collins, Colorado for more than 22 years; and

WHEREAS, William F. Dressel has been an active member of the American Bar Association and its Judicial Division throughout his legal and judicial careers, serving as the principal author of the ABA's Trial Management Standards adopted by the House of Delegates in 1992; and

WHEREAS, William F. Dressel has been an active and loyal supporter of the National Association for Court Management, attending the meetings and conferences of this Association and always establishing effective lines of communication between the Association and the National Judicial College; and

WHEREAS, William F. Dressel has provided stability and continuity while being innovative and progressive in his approach to judicial education; and

WHEREAS, William F. Dressel is a person who combines experience, wisdom, dedication, hard work, and good cheer in leading the work of the National Judicial College which has allowed the College to prosper and grow even during difficult financial times; and

WHEREAS, William F. Dressel has been a leader in judicial education and judicial administration and a friend to judges and court administrators throughout this country;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the National Association for Court Management expresses its deep appreciation to William F. Dressel for his thoughtful leadership, dedicated service, loyal support and guidance, and for his commitment to improving the state courts of this nation, and the Association extends to him its best wishes for a happy, healthy and productive retirement.

Adopted by the NACM Board on December XX, 2013.